"Jacques"

1662-3, 1675-6, 1676-7 and 1678-9 and served on [illegible] juries in 1661, 1675 and 1680. [illegible] by the selectmen, he was prepared to keep an ordinary in 1679. He was an active partisan of Rev. Mr. Parker in the Parker-Woodman controversy in the Newbury church in 1671. He had [illegible] in 1650 and 1657. He took the Freeman's Oath on May 13, 1669, and the Oath of Allegiance in 1678 when he was aged [illegible]. In King Philip's war he supplied to the [illegible] [illegible], [illegible], all of which were lost. He was discharged from ordinary training in 1679, and from all training in 1680 because of his lameness and because he had two sons already in the troop [illegible] and another about to enter.[illegible]

Henry Jaques died at Newbury on February 24, 1686-7, and his widow, Anna Jaques survived until February 22, 1705-6. His will, made October 30, 1686, was proved March 6, 1686-7. To his wife Anna he left one-half of his dwelling-house and half of the great cellar, one third of the orchard and ten rods of suitable land for a garden. The executor was to keep the garden well fenced, was to cut sufficient wood and bring it to her door and to keep two cows for her both winter and summer. She was also to have the bed in the parlor with all the furniture belonging to it, one half of the household goods for her life, and £5 each year. A horse and a man were to be supplied to carry her to meeting. To his son Daniel Jaques, the land in Bradford and Rowley bought from Capt. Walker, the house and land in Amesbury bought from Richard Currier and John [illegible], his right in the [illegible] and land bought from Robert [illegible] and various other lands. To his daughter Mary, wife of Richard Brown, £20. To his daughter Hannah, wife of Ephraim Plummer, £20. To his daughter Sarah, wife of John Hale, £17. To his [illegible] [illegible], £20 apiece [illegible] upon marriage or upon reaching the age of twenty-one. His grandson Henry, son of his son Henry, deceased, "shall at the charge of my executor be maintained & kept at school untill he can read and write well and cast accounts sufficiently for common [illegible] & then be bound apprentice to some trade"; also he was to be paid £15 at the age of twenty-one. To the three sons of his son Henry Jaques of Woodbridge, deceased, all his estate at Woodbridge town in East New Jersey, the eldest son to have a double share. To his grandson Richard Jaques, son of his son Richard, deceased, £40 at the age of twenty-one. He appoints his son Stephen his [illegible] lawful heir to all his lands, houses, goods and chattels, with [illegible] to Stephen's heirs, to son Daniel, his grandson Richard and his own [illegible] made. "Whereas Jasper my Indian hath been a good servant to me my will is that he shall serve my executor well and faithfully six years after my decease & that then he shall have his freedom." Executor, son Stephen. Overseers: friends Capt. Thomas Noyes, Mr. Nathan Gerrish. Witnesses: Isack Baley, Anthony Morse, Henry Short. The estate was valued at £1124, Jasper the Indian being worth £10.*

Children, born in Newbury:

i. Henry, b. July 30, 1649. In 1668 he had got [illegible] [illegible] [illegible], in lieu of [illegible] [illegible], had fled, presumably having been taken to New Jersey by his father. The fine of the [illegible] was paid by John Knight, and Henry was fined £40 in March and [illegible] him in May 1669 for his [illegible]. He removed to Woodbridge where he married about 1673 Anna, probably sister of John [illegible] of Woodbridge, [illegible] six children in his will in [illegible]. He took the Oath of Allegiance Jan. 27, 1668-9. In 1675 he made public acknowledgment of his being [illegible] [illegible], Richard [illegible]. He died at Woodbridge April [illegible], [illegible]. His widow Anne Jaques married Samuel [illegible] of Woodbridge Dec. [illegible], 1690 and on March 4, 1690-91 Anne was appointed administratrix of the Jaques estate.

Children, born at Woodbridge:

1. Anna, b. [illegible] 1675; m. Dec. 11, 1700, Samuel [illegible].
2. Henry, b. [illegible]. In 1677 and [illegible] he sold land in Woodbridge and disappears from the records of that town except that a [illegible] of land was [illegible] to his name in 1717. The two items showing him as a [illegible] from his grandfather's will it may be inferred that after his father's death this boy, his namesake, was brought up in his grandfather's house in Newbury. Henry Jaques and Rebecca Pickering were published in Portsmouth April 10, 1706, and married at Portsmouth June 20, 1706, and at Portsmouth he [illegible] 1721/2 when administration was granted on his estate to her brother John Pickering. The widow Rebecca Jaques m. at Portsmouth [illegible] 1723, Paul Wentworth.
3. Sarah, b. Jan. [illegible]; d. April 12, 1678.
4. Jonathan, b. April [illegible].

ii. Mary, b. Nov. [illegible]; d. [illegible]

iii. Mary, b. Oct. 22, 1653; m. May 7, 1674, Richard Brown.

iv. Richard, b. Jan. 18, [illegible] ([illegible]). He took the Oath of Allegiance in 1678, aged 22. He was drowned May 28, 1683 (town record), but in the inventory of his estate it says that he died June 22, 1683. The first date is correct as on that day a jury of inquest found that Richard Jakwith, tired and weary with washing sheep, jumped into the river to save a man who was beyond his depth, "sank and rose no more."† He left a small estate.‡

"A History of Pawtucket" by Robert Grieve has excellent views of Major Nathaniel Jenckes old home built early in 18th century. It stood on the west side of No. Main St. nr. Exchange St.

Major Nathaniel^3 Jenckes' family Bible, which was bought by him in 1720, and first used for family record by him, was passed on to his grandson, Capt. Stephen^5 Jenckes, and in it the latter wrote his name and "His Book December ye 2th: 1750, and following it his own family record. This Bible has been preserved and a description and copy of its records, may be found in the Mayflower Descendant Vol. 20, p. 175.

of life as he remembered it 70 years ago in Falmouth *
Some 20 years after his death, some sketche~~s~~/he had written (probably in the late 1920's) were found; they had never been published, but contain much of interest, including the following:

> The seaman's wife was his business manager. She took care of his property ashore, kept his money and made his investments if there were any to make. She had decided religious views, was clear-headed and efficient, -- or in the Garden-Spot phrase, a good meetin'er, facultied and a quicketer. They were self-contained, patient, undemonstrative women.
> How else could they have lived? A young woman was engaged to a seaman on a whale ship. Shortly after, he sailed on a voyage promising to marry when he returned. A few letters may have found their way back and forth. Then he returned, they were married and established in their new home and before long he was off on another voyage. A few letters, she would see the ship spoken in the papers and barring shipwreck, fevers and other accidents she would see him for a few months again.
> And his child wondered at the liberties which the strange man took with the house and its occupants and in view of the fuss that was made over him would be glad to see him go again. And this was the comradeship of marriage till the infirmities of age made voyages impossible.

PHILINDA ELDRIDGE (MERRICK) KEELER, UTAH PIONEER

Philinda Eldridge Merrick Keeler, left a very commendable heritage to her posterity. The daughter of Abner and Fanny Goodell Eldridge, she was born 2 Aug~~.~~ust, 1809, in the State of Vermont. Her first husband, Levi Newton Merrick, trained for the ministry. When he was sent out to preach he refused to go with the work, having, as he said, no authority to do so. He was therefore looking for proper authority and both of them readily accepted the gospel of Jesus Christ of Latter-Day Saints, ~~likely~~ probably in Green County, Ill~~.~~inois where he and his family lived from 1831-37. to 1837

Shortly after his conversion, father Merrick had a patriarchal blessing. Sister Merrick very seriously voiced with the patriarch his "Amen". One statement in the blessing they often pondered over but did not understand was "You shall be called to preach to the spirits in prison who were rebellious when the long suffering of the Lord waited in the days of Noah".

In October, 1838, Levi N. Merrick, his family, and other saints were journeying from Missouri, from whence they had been driven out to join the saints in ~~Ill.~~ Illinois. They stopped at Haun's Mill to rest the horses. Though assured by the mill owner that it was safe for them to remain there as long as they wished, Brother Merrick felt very uneasy at the tension he sensed all about and resolved to seek out the Prophet Joseph the next day and learn what was best to do. The sudden arrival of a mob of 240 left no tomorrow for Brother Merrick. Some of the men ran and hid as the mob approached, thinking no doubt ~~they~~ the [illegible] would not harm women and children. Not so, Levi Merrick and a few other intreped ones remained. Philinda Merrick witnessed in horror the murder of her husband in cold blood and the mortal wounding of her oldest son Charlie, as he lay almost hidden behind the bellows in the blacksmith shop. His life was taken because in the language of the [illegible] "nits make lice".

As Brother Merrick fell, his distracted wife rushed to him and clasping him in her arms cried out in the anguish of her soul, "Speak to me Levi, Speak to me". His voice was stilled but another voice said to her very distinctly, "You have said amen. Let my will not thine ~~He~~ be done." Like a flash the words of the blessing came to her and she understood their meaning. This knowledge proved a great comfort and strength to her in the trying years that followed.

In the pillaging that was done by the Haun's mill mob, $700.00 was taken from Brother Merrick's pocket — proceeds from the sale of their former home. The family was now left penniless. Their horses were driven off by the mob.

Hurried burials were necessary and an old dry well was chosen. Among the men who ran away to safety was the father of the Smith boy who was killed where he was hiding with Charlie Merrick under the bellows. I well remember hearing a brother of the murdered boy telling this story. As Brother Merrick's body was being lowered into the well, Smith turned to Philinda Merrick and said, "There goes some of your foolhardy bravery". With flashing eyes she turned on him with, "I would rather have him lying there than standing in the crowards shoes you stand in".

When but eight years of age I saw a magic lantern picture of my grandmother fleeing from the mob through a rain of bullets with her wounded son in her arms and three frightened children clinging to her skirts. The narrator who was showing the pictures told ~~how~~ That the doctor living in the settlement from whence the mob had come offered to give help to the young boy. She scourned the proffered services saying, "Your kind have done their work; now God and I will take care of him." The narrator emphasized time and again that Philinda Merrick's faith made her totally unafraid. To her boys she would say, "I am always ready to help you unless you come to me with a wound in the back. In that case I just would not be interested."

Her sons George and Newton Merrick, who later became pony express riders for Brigham Young, and Abner Eldridge Keeler, night watchman for freight trains crossing the plains, and later interpreter and guide to the Oregon county and the little known trails of the west, all three testified that they were unaquainted with fear.

Most of the survivors of the massacre left the scene as soon as possible, but Philinda Merrick stayed at the mill to care for her wounded son, who died the 25th of November, 1838.

Through the kindess of Brigham Young she finally reached Nauvoo. Shortly after her arrival in the city, Philinda's father-in-law, William Merrick, called on her with the offer to care for the family and educate the children if she would denounce renounce Mormonism. She chose to remain with her church and take in ~~a wing~~ sewing to support her family of three, Fanny, Newton, and George. Though she was a stranger, the Prophet and Emma welcomed her as one of the family and provided her with a room in their house where she could support her family with her clever needle. Though penniless, she was rich in a strong testimony of the Gospel and an unwavering will to carry her load.

While living in the Smith Mansion, as the Prophet Joseph's home was known, she helped prepare the curtains for the temple. She also saw the mummies and papyrus from which the "Pearl of Great Price" was translated, as did her daughter Fanny. To her dying day Fanny did beautiful knitting and was proud to relate ~~how~~ that she was taught to knit by the prophet as she sat on his knee. cap

One most significant day Sister Emma came to her room. "Philinda dear," she said, "lay aside your work a minute. I have a message from Joseph. He says the work of the women in the Church is just as important as the work men have to do. He wants to organize us under the power and authority of the priesthood that we may have the same Heavenly Guidance and direction in our lives the men now have. You have been chosen to be with us at the time. And now I must hurry on; there are many preparations to be made." period

Only one who had suffered as Philinda had suffered, first for the lack of that authority and then to be required to give a life of a loved one in payment for receiving the priesthood of God, could experience the joy it brought to know that she, a woman, could have a claim of that authority.

Betrothed to a man who was trained for the ministry, Philinda's young womanhood was filled with dreams of the broad opportunities for service this position as his wife would give her. Shortly after their marriage, when the time came for Newton to take his place as pastor of the little Church and its flock, he declared he could not "for", he said, "no man has authority to ordain me to teach in the name of Christ". He firmly believed that some day authority would be given. For it he must wait.

Philinda must indeed bury her dreams in service to her sincere husband's beliefs.

Philinda and Newton ~~had~~ readily accepted the Gospel when the missionaries came with it. They sold their home and started for Nauvoo. Now came the supreme sacrifice-to defend that power and authority for which he had waited, Newton must give his life, leaving her not only without the protection of a loving husband but also without the guidance and blessings of that priesthood. Sister Emma's message, unexpected as it was, assured her she no longer need struggle along alone but could be joined in a circle with other married women, who under the Priesthood would be given the authority and power from Heaven for which she had already paid so dearly. Our Father is very mindful of the needs of his children. Philinda Merrick was one of the Charter members of the Relief Society when it was organized on March 17th 1842.

Daniel Hutchison Keeler was working as a stone mason on the Nauvoo temple. He and Philinda Merrick were married in the temple in 1842. In April 24, 1844, their eldest son, Abner Eldridge, was born. Daniel was born four years later, at St. Louis.

During the winter of 1845-46, Brother Keeler purchased a new wagon complete in every detail to move his family out of Nauvoo when the call came. Then he went to St. Louis to get money for the trip. In Nauvoo Philinda's children became ill. She was advised to call in a doctor living near by. He gave two doses of calomel. A few days later he presented a bill for $60. Philinda explained that Brother Keeler was working in St. LOuis and the bill would be paid as soon as he returned. The Doctor threatened to take the case to court. Then he said he would take the new wagon. Philinda knew she was helpless to prevent it and so she consented. For this reason the Keeler family had to go to St. Louis to get means for the journey to the mountains instead of leaving when the Saints were driven from Nauvoo in 1846. Somewhere along the way Philinda was striken with consumption (as tuberculosis was known in those days). No sickness or hardship caused her to neglect teaching the three R's to her children, so well did she do her work that before my father was eight years old he read aloud daily from the Bible and the Book of Mormon to his rapidly failing mother.

Though unable to sit up she decided she must get her family started toward Utah and the body of the Church. In 1859 they left St. Louis in the company under her cousin Horace S. Eldidge. She died enroute near Fort Laramie, Wyoming.

To me the name of Philinda stands for undeviating courage in the face of any difficulty.

DIRCK KEYSER - founder of the family in America, born Amsterdam 1635; engaged in manufacture of silk.

He belonged to the Mennonites in Holland in 16 ; came to Pennsylvania and followed the same faith. Of a large tract of land purchased from William Penn (and divided into 55 lots of 50 acres, each to be distributed) one lot fell to Dirck Keyser and became his home. He erected a stone house, said to be still standing and became one of the leading men in Germantown.

Among 30,000 German, Dutch and Huguenots arriving here in this country since 1688 there were but 6 of this name and none previous to 1749.

Leonard Keyser	1749
George	1750
Jacob	1752
Andras	1753
Johannes	1757
Phillip	1773

The original home of Keysers was Raab, a town on the Danube in Hungary where they are known to have existed early in 16th century. One of them Leon(n)ard Keyser, a priest, had been converted to the doctrines of Luther & Zwingh. The family to avoid persecution fled to Crefeld, on the river Rhine; afterward removing to Amsterdam, Holland, where for 4 generations they were merchants & manufacturers. Leonard (so the story goes) was a Mass priest in Scharding, Bavaria, early in the 16th century; a man of learning or what passed for such in the monasteries to which the church consigns such lives. He accepted the writings of Zwingh & Luther; went to Wittemberg, convened with doctors, partook of the Lord's Supper with them. He joined the AnaBaptists in 1525, spreading the work of the Gospel with great zeal and power. He went among people telling them in their own language of the power of the Gospel and that they should be saved.

The power of the church was very great. At his trial he answered all questions in the German language, and refus~~h~~ed to speak in Latin. He was condemned to be burned alive. When taken to his execution in midsummer, August 1527, the broad wheels of the trundle on which he was carried crushed the flowers as he passed, as the power of the church was crushing out his hopes and desires. While he was answering the monks, he plucked a flower and said to the Judge at his side, "If you burn this flower with me, you have justly condemned me, if it shall not burn in my hand, repent and be ye saved." Tradition says that neither the flower nor his body would burn, that he fell from the fire on one side and was killed, the flower still unwithered in his hand.

It may be from descendants of this man, or his kinsmen, that the English Keysers came.

Origin of Name - a surname is common in every nation where one has obtained distinction above his country men - that is, a ruler.

he purchased of his "brother" Edmund Batter of Salem a farm in Brooksby in 1653. He probably married Jane, a sister of Edmund Batter, in or before 1637, as Thomas and Jane Antrum were members of the Salem church in 1637. He was made a freeman May 18, 1642; and died in 1663, his will being dated 24 : 11 : 1662, and proved 3 : 5 mo : 1663. Children: 1. Hannah^{2}, married Isaac Burnap 8 : 9 mo : 1658. 2. Obadiah^{2}, baptized June 7, 1640; married Martha Baker of Ipswich; lived in Salem; mariner; and was lost at sea on a voyage to Nevis or some other West India island in 1664. He called Edmund Batter "uncle." His widow returned to Ipswich; and married, secondly, Thomas Andrews of Rowley Village (Boxford) June 22, 1670. 3. Mary^{2}, baptized July 18, 1643; probably died before 1663. 4. John^{2}, baptized March 25, 1648; probably died before 1663.—Salem town records, Registry of deeds, Savage, etc.

George^5 Kezar was an Indian scout about 1755 (that would be one in N.H.) — he took his furs to Pittsfield, N.H., to sell them (I guess this means aft. he began trapping here in Me.)

his 3 daus. names — Sarah, Susannah & Hannah, — judging by available date info it looks as tho' lineup of George's ch. should be —— maybe, maybe not.

(A) SARAH, b. 1763, Canterbury, N.H. — d. 1816, ae 53, ?? prob. in Vt.
m. David Abbott (1766–1847, ae 81) — he from Andover Mass.
ch: Polly (10 Oct. 1789); Prudence (10 Jan 1791); several daus, nms not given, bet. 1793–95); David S. (5 Oct. 1798)
JOSIAH, b. 1768, Canterbury — you have some info already GEORGE, b. bet. 1768–71, must be in Cant.) " " " "
*EBENEZER, b. 27 Jan 1772, Canterbury, N.H. (q.v.)
B) SUSANNAH, b. 22 Oct, 1774, Canterbury, N.H.; d. 1 Nov. 1828, Parsonsfield, Me.
m. 9 Oct. 1800, Josiah Perry, b. 15 June 1766, Scarboro, Me.; d. 27 Jan. 1816, ?? Pld pst.
ch. : ~~SUSANNAH~~ Susannah (29 July 1801); Joseph (?) ((ser. ? there was ano son or two))
(B) HANNAH, b. 17--; d. ? ; m. 13 Nov. 1800, Nathaniel Goulld, Jr. of Wells, Me.; b. ? ; d. ?
ch. ?
ABNER, b. 1781, Canterbury, N.H.; d. 9 Oct. 1849, ae 68 yrs. 6 mos, Parsonsfield, Me. — you have info on him

All the info I had on George's 3 daus. were m. nms of Lord, Perry & Miles. Since Susannah m. Perry that leaves Hannah & Sarah to be m. to Lord & Miles. Maybe both girls were m. twice — who knows? Per. these 3 m. nms were at time of fa's d. or something like that.

(A.) – from Hemingway Gazateer – Vol. 3
(B.) – believe Leon said he found these in Parsonsfield V.R.

Hopefully I can talk Barbara into an Augusta trip this fall. Wish me luck.

Alice

Dear Mig,

Had to junk the "new" ribbon I put on recently - it was no good. The trouble was I bought it last Mar. so couldn't very well take it back. That happened once before - years ago - but that time I had put it on right ~~wa~~ away so took it right back to the store. Anyway, thought I'd better write this KEZAR stuff out for you as you may want to make new page since really it belongs at the beginning. Got it at last ALSOP meeting. Incidentally, cousin John has missed three meetings - in June it was because he had to saw wood for his step-father; in July it was on account of a family reunion (with his brother coming from Ill.); no idea what kept him from coming in Aug. Only one more meeting this year. And I wonder if there will be any next year. Helen called me a short time ago to say she was putting her house up for sale and planned to move to Mass. when the deal went through but no idea when that would be, of course. Said she'd be coming back for the meetings but I doubt if they will last much without her to spark them - especially since she's been making the big pots of chicken ~~stew~~ pie, corn chowder, etc., and bringing them in at lunch time, hot off her stove!

(forgot to write down where "cousin" Leon comes in

From a Kezar book given to ALSOP by Leon Keyser - it was compiled by a C. F. Kezer (~~believe~~ Leon said the compiler went to Eng. and researched the *Eng. records.) He had that old mix-up on John m. 2d Ruth Tirrell which I never could believe. But at least the bap. records from Eng. finally get GEORGE^1 where he belongs - seems like he changed his age every time he "deposed".

I also have a note that Remember Tisdale m. Nicholas Stephens & had 7 ch.

This must be the dau. of JOHN^2. (Maybe I can check that at next meeting.)

Didn't get a chance.

Leon is a descendant of Reuben⁵

The Kezar (pers. spelling) Stadium ~~-~~ in Golden Gate State Park — recreation field in San Francisco — Mary A.⁹ gave $100,000 for its construction back in 1922. She, a desc. of our George. And his wife's name in this book is given as Mary. First time I've seen that listed anywhere.

Incidentally "cousin" John did not show up at Sept. ALSOP meeting either. Nobody seems to know anything about him or how come he stopped attending the meetings.

Horoscope clipping from newspaper the day your letter arrived. How about that?

Mavis & Gene are back home. Had a wonderful time, of course. He lost 11 pounds (which he could easily get along without) and she kept her weight the same as always although listening to her tell about all the "eats" I don't see why she didn't gain some.

It never "rains but it pours" — or maybe I'm misquoting that — but you surely are having a rough time of it. I guess 1980 has not been the best of years for a lot of us. At least that's what I told my Dr. about me, anyway. And you & Dick — & your Ohio friends — & lots of other folks, here & there — "wars & rumors of wars" — refugees, etc. etc., etc. Please, let's hope 1981 does better by us all. Cataract operations are quite common nowadays — two elderly local ladies have had theirs with great success — one in her 90's — the other in her 80's. Lita had plumbing trouble, too, but finally got a plumber to come & get everything fixed. Believe he put in quite a session all over the house. Lucky they don't have to pay the bill.

Thanks for the snaps. Good to see Dick up on his feet. (And that he's shed the pot-belly.) The man who built the ramp did a beautiful job — hope the other man finally got the cement landing completed.

Got 5 storm windows on so far. Been busy gathering acorns — 15 ~~#~~ 10qt pailfuls so far — how many acorns in 150 qts? If I had a penny a piece — wow! If the local dump doesn't grow its own pine grove & oak forest it won't be because I didn't give it a chance. And the acorns are still coming down.

Love
Alice

Freeman at Lynn 14 Mar. 1639. He bought the land (19th 1 mo. 1649) of Mr. Samuel Bennett who then held the mill property. He still retained the estate in Lynn, which passed to his son Benjamin^2. Rec'd. in Ch. at Salem, 2 May 1670, by dismissal from the Ch. in Lynn. Apparently they kept the spelling with two "E's" - Leon spells his "EY" - and we use "EA". To each his own.

Interesting article about the English country wedding style - there used to be some rather unique customs in this country back in olden times, also.

You haven't had a corner on HOT weather - it's been beastly HOT up here, too. Got to the point where I was wearing shorts around home and one day I even resorted to a midriff top. Shades of ALA. & MISS. Go out to work, mowing or cutting & piling brush, and come in dripping! Not brave enough to go to town in shorts as many women do. So get dressed per usual but "peel" when I get home. Yesterday afternoon we had a rather mild thunder shower but it continued to rain, more or less apparently all night, and still raining this morning although weatherman predicts clearing by afternoon and nice tomorrow. We needed that rain. Gardens drying up. Saw in the paper where some places in Mass. were beginning to put bans on washing cars, watering lawns., etc.

Ordinarily I don't aim to answer letters quite this quickly but Leon sent me this info after last ALSOP meeting when I told him about the clipping you sent with DEXTER'S picture on the back. I sent him a note of thanks and said I was going to send info to you. And here it's time for another ALSOP meeting already so thought I'd better get this off now.

You should see the luscious(?) prolific Poison Ivy I'm working in, around & over up by the brook these days. I poisoned off a lot of it across the brook earlier but didn't get to it all and it sure took advantage of the fact. Then new brush sprang up all around old tree stumps, in the few blueberry bushes, under downed logs, etc., etc., etc. With some of the logs being gone now - I wish Paul would get the rest but he's in no hurry this hot weather - I can see I've got a better chance to poison off more of the stuff. Use ORTHO POISON IVY SPRAY. It works. Have to have two or three days of dry weather - one year I sprayed and it rained that night and washed it all off so I had to do it over again. Plants absorb through the leaves and back to roots and die. My biggest trouble is it grows profusely in woods on west and gets seeded(?) over onto my side. And, since as I mentioned, I didn't get to all of it in time I have a good crop at present. I wash up with good old ZEST when I come in. Did get a few little itchy spots a few times. Use CALAMINE LOTION and that takes care of them.

Haven't done any genealogical work for some time now. Too busy with "yard work" and don't get to library any more. Barbara and two friends were off down to Hartford last week, Thurs. to Sat., to a genealogical convention thing-a-ma-jig. Stayed at the Hilton, 3 in one room, but still cost a mint I'd say. The room was listed as $94 but conventioners got a discount. However she said there was only one chair and she had to fight to get towels for three persons as they only furnished two sets (and no wash cloths). So much for the Hilton. She said food cost a mint - service in the so-called coffee shop was slower than cold molasses (running uphill in Jan. I added) - but they had a good time. Although she took the quilt off one bed and slept on the floor between the two double beds the 2d night. Both other ladies snored! Didn't get a chance to go to the Library. That would have been the only thing I would have wanted to do if I'd gone. Wasn't invited and would have refused, anyway. Now she's after me to go to MOCA in Lewiston tomorrow (if I'd be down to her house at 7:30 A.M. as she is meeting one of those other ladies at Auburn exit to pick her up.) Not interested - the program doesn't appeal to me. And if I go to ALSOP the next day that's enough.

Sorry Dick is having such a hard time - you, too, but glad you finally got him to stop smoking while you're playing dominoes. What has he got against going back into hospital for a while as per Dr.'s suggestion?

Pete has been having bad time, too, and is going to a boarding home over in No. Bridgton for a few weeks. Was in local hospital recently. Heart acting up - no appetite - no strength - Dr. thinks she should consider staying there this winter as he says she shouldn't be alone where she lives. She says she will have private room and bath, can take any of her things she wants (her own bed, lounge chair, TV, radio and fan, etc.) and will stay a few weeks. Maybe go back home for the fall. Will decide later. Believe she said it costs $600 per month. Five other boarders there now. Not a nursing home - they only take people who are up and about. Right next door to Library, across street from Bridgton Academy where many programs are open to general public, can have transportation into center of town if she wants - can have her own car there, ditto (but not allowed to drive right now due to medication she's taking.

Lighting up. Guess it's getting around to clearing off as promised. Good-as I've got errands to do in town and a date for dinner at Chef's Table with Frances if we go.

KEZAR

GEORGE^5 KEZAR, b. 14 Aug. 1733, "in the valley of the Merrimack" (Hampstead, N.H.); d. 1797, Parsonsfield, Maine (?G.S.-Abner Kezar fam. cem., Kezar Rd.); m. 17— ,?MARY MILES, dau. of JOSIAH & ELIZABETH(?)MILES; b. 17 ; d. 18 .

He was an Indian scout in 1755 - on Canterbury, N.H., tax lists, 1764, '67, '69, '70, '71, '74, '75 - in the "Mark Book" (used to record the marks for cattle & sheep), 1771 - a renowned "hunter & trapper" - rem. from Canterbury (or Warren), N.H., to Parsonsfield, Maine, abt. 1772/6 - located on west side of the Great meadow or Corporal brook - brought w. & 3 ch., Jan. 1778, to his favorite hunting camp which stood in the intervale where Great Brook flows into Great Ossipee, near Kezar meadows -1785 tax list showed him "living in woods between Cornish and Kezar Falls" - (Kezar Falls named for him - he had a "sort of footbridge from rock to rock, which crossed the river at that point") - he had lot #198, Range 11, and lots #209 & #212, Range 12 - had 2 s. over 16 yrs. of age, also 2 daus., liv. w/him, per 1790 census - his w. was said to have been a good nurse & herb doctor - she rem. to Canada w/s. Josiah & his fam. in 1809.

It is said of George Kezar that he "brained the bear and belled the wolf" - two versions abt. bear: (1) "gave it a knockout with his hatchet, at foot of Mudgett's Hill,near Long Pond, Parsonsfield" and (2) "thrust his hunting knife through open jaws down its throat, near the base of Rattlesnake Mt., Porter(field)" - both end with "Kezar sustained a lacerated and bleeding arm" - wolves persisted in robbing his traps so he fastened a bell to a piece of iron and when a wolf grabbed the bait the iron clasped around its neck - sound of the bell frightened the others - "for a little time Kezar heard the tinkling, here and there, but before morning all was quiet - later he was told that a big flock of wolves, followed by a belled one, was seen scampering toward Canada".

John Bly[1] lived in Salem as early as 1653, when he was about fourteen; John Pomeroy was here in 1660, being a mariner, and was cast away at sea in 1662; and George Keaser[2], a tanner, came here from Lynn in the autumn of 1660, when he built a dwelling house on South River, on the easterly side of Liberty Street. There, he established tanning. He had bought the land six years previously.

Wenham in the same court the next Christmas day. In 1652, his wife was presented for wearing a silk hood; but the case was continued, nothing more concerning it appears on record, and apparently the matter was dropped. Mr. Killam served on the grand jury in 1655, 1657 and 1658. In the latter year a suit was brought against him and his son Daniel and son-in-law Richard Hutton by William Browne to recover for the rent of a farm in Wenham.

In 1653, the people of Wenham contributed to the support of Harvard college, and Mr. Killam and his sons Daniel and John are on the list of donors. Of the twenty-five persons who thus contributed only four gave more than Mr. Killam. He also gave liberally to the support of the church, and he was one of the two collectors of the salary of the minister in 1659. He was also one of the committee of three chosen to build the meeting house, in December, 1660, and it was erected upon his land.

Mr. Killam married Alice —— in England about 1618. He died in Wenham June 5, 1667, at about seventy years of age.

Mr. Killam made his will only three days before his death. The following is an exact copy of the original document, which is on file in the probate office at Salem:—

Orleans church approa

Dorothy Wilson is a retired psychiatric social worker who lives in Yarmouthport. She was a personal friend of the Rev. and Mrs. Richard Kimball who founded the Church of the Holy Spirit in Orleans. Ms. Wilson is currently involved in several free lance writing projects.

By DOROTHY WILSON
Special Writer

It is unique in its origin, its creation, its growth, and it is renowned for its hand-hewn beauty nestled into the open rolling land and surrounding pines.

Its conception came from the hearts and prayers of 17 friends in Orleans who fervently wished for their own Episcopal Church where they could worship in love, joy and giving. The nearest one was ten miles away.

Two members of this group were Richard and Florence Kimball, who had retired to Orleans in 1932 as refugees from the tempo of New York City and had become close friends of these longer-time residents.

Dick was a writer living in Boston who had come to a dangerous crisis in his life, and was sick with despair when Florence met and befriended him. She nurtured him back to health, and their friendship grew into a love which they wanted to share with others through worship and giving.

When they first came to Orleans, Florence was attracted to a small, neglected house standing in isolation on the edge of seven acres of rolling countryside and pines.

Its aloneness appealed to her, in such a setting. It had two rooms downstairs and one small one upstairs, and was without heat, and over Dick's remonstrations she bought it. One of the rooms had been made from the deck house of the wrecked clipper ship Orissa, which had fortuitously washed up on Nauset Beach, and had been brought over the road by oxen. It had slanting walls and an overhanging roof, which gave a mellow, nautical atmosphere. After working many hours repairing the house it became their home, and later the church rectory.

The group of 17 friends first met in their kitchens, or on each other's porches, where they talked of their need to worship together and share their love and joy with others.

Soon they were offered the use of the auditorium of a girls' camp to hold services, which even had a piano. Their first one took place on June 4, 1933, and since then not a Sunday service has been missed.

The altar was an antique pine dressing table, and the altar rail was a section of a weather-beaten rail fence. Dick was asked to read the service because he had been a writer and they thought he could give a talk.

The Bishop of the Diocese in Boston licensed Dick to be a lay reader, and later gave him permission to study at home, under the supervision of the Dean of the Episcopal Theological School. On Wednesday June 1, 1938 he came to Orleans and ordained Richard Kimball to the diaconate, and two years later advanced him to the priesthood.

The group had no money but their bond through prayer, joy in sharing, and perseverance for two years caused them to vote to build aa small church. On July 11, 1935 ground was broken for one to be eighteen feet by 24 feet, to seat 50 persons, and the Kimballs donated enough land for it.

As the frame-work went up in that open field it attracted the attention of anyone passing by.

For not only was it odd looking, but the people building it were calling out to each other as though they were all friends. Strangers began offering to help, as well as friends from the town. The sharing spirit was spreading to those who belonged to other denominations as well as from neighboring towns.

Donations began to rain upon them. Shingles were given by a local lumber company, old beams from the Chequasett Inn in Wellfleet, which had been wrecked by a storm, an old fanlight from a demolished mansion on Beacon Hill, chairs from a college that were no longer in use.

A landscape architect offered his services. A retired carpenter who had worked on old beams much of his life fitted them together with skill and caring.

Some gifts were sent to the church from friends travelling abroad; a boat which originally hung above the; altar of a church in Holland having been carved by a fisherman in gratitude for being saved from a storm; a chalice made by Russian peasants which had been used for more than 100 years in a Greek Orthodox Church.

The carving on the end of some of the pews was done by members of the church as were the candle coronas, crosses, the altar and its hangings, with love flowing through their hands.

The extraordinary carving on doors, the flames on the pulpit and the cross above the altar were done by the prominent artist Vernon Smith. The spirit and devotion burning within the hearts of the group that had prayed and persevered for this church was flowing back to them.

The first service was held in the little church a month after the ground was broken, and 65 people came to fill the 50 seats. By the second summer it was overflowing and an altar rail was put outside the church so communicants could also be served there, under a protective canopy.

The congregation continued to grow and it had become one of various faiths; Unitarians, Quakers, free thinkers, Lutherans from various towns as well as Orleans, for all had become touched by the beauty and consecration of the church.

It became necessary to enlarge it and double the seating capacity. The little Church had lost that part of its charm, but by its spirit of love, joy and sharing, it had done something very special.

I became acquainted with Florence and Dick Kimball in 1943 on the occasion of giving a talk at a meeting of a young mothers' club in their church rectory.

They sat at the back of the room listening very attentively. The young mothers had asked me to talk about problem behavior in children, knowing that talks on this and related subjects were part of my work in developing a child guidance clinic on Cape Cod.

At the termination of the meeting, Florence approached me saying pleasantly, "I suppose you have a master's degree in social work," to which I agreed. "I raise goats. Did you ever see one born?" I said "no". "Well," she exclaimed, "Have you ever witnessed a birth?" Feeling less adequate than I had during my talk to the mother's club, I admitted that I hadn't. Giving me a big grin she told me, "you have much to learn that your degree hasn't given you." This was the beginning of my friendship and admiration for her.

Florence was extraordinary. She was a wonderfully keen, humorous and compassionate woman, with forth-rightness, ingenuity, and charm, who was concerned foremost with the needs of others.

Her herd of goats to provide milk for babies who needed it for survival, and her establishment of a craft workshop for the town's women, in conjunction with the church, were several of numerous projects. She took her goats' milk to the Boston Lying-in Hospital for babies who couldn't tolerate either their mother's milk or cow's milk.

She namad her goats for characters from Gilbert and Sullivan operas. They were all females and in order to increase the herd she would race over the road to Truro with a susceptible female where a suitable male might become enamoured at the propitious moment.

Although I never did witness the birth of one, I did watch one walk on its four wobbly legs within an hour of its entrance into this world.

The craft shop hummed with creative activity as women wove on looms, or caressed clay into forms of beauty, or hammered out aluminum into attractive and useful objects.

Their creations were sold in the Galley West gift shop, in the rectory. It is still there today, and the gifts are made in people's homes. The workers and the church shared in the profits.

My visit to the church was an unforgettable experience. Its quiet, simple beauty created by loving hands, and its dignity, softness and intimacy brought me close to the Great Love and assurance which transcends people.

Richard Kimball and Florence are buried beside the entrance of the Church which he served as priest with joy, profound happiness, and humility, until his death in 1950.

The 50th anniversary of this very special Church will be celebrated in June, 1983.

It is stated that he saw service in Brazil and later served in the army of the Netherlands. Under Count William Frederick, in 1650, he fought at antwerp, and after the death of William the Second, Prince of Orange, he immigrated from Holland to America, where he died. He was wounded in the knee in this engagement, which caused him to retire from the service and follow his father to America. He purchased land at albany, at Half Moon, and in Duchess County. He married, January 3, 1675, Elizabeth, daughter of Myndeert Heerm and Von de Bogat, and died april 2, 1721, leaving — [illegible] Knight's [illegible] was discharged.

Knight's numerous professions of his age. He was about 69 in 1671, about 70 in 1673, about 73 in 1675, about 75 in 1677, and 77 in 1678 when he took the Oath of Allegiance.

It is amusing to find the deacon before the magistrates at least once on his own account. In 1663 he and his friend Hugh March got down for a game of cards at Knight's house. This was an offence against Massachusetts morality, and, informed upon, the two were presented at the quarterly court, one of the two witnesses against them being Bathsua, wife of his nephew John Knight.[1] In the Parker-Woodman dispute he was, as might be expected, on the minister's side, and, on going to Mr. Woodman to demand the church book, he was told by Woodman that he "and [illegible] with Mr. Parker."[2]

In King Philip's war he supplied a dragoons horse for thirteen weeks (£12: 0: 2), bridles (6-5), a horse to Dedham, Ipswich and Salisbury (£1: 11: 10), a gun (£1: 6: 8) and two horses (£2: 17: 8).

Richard Knight died in Newbury August 4, 1683. His wife Agnes had died there March 22, 1678/9.

Richard Knight made his will August 17, 1681. It was proved September 25, 1683, and an inventory of £730 entered. To his grandchildren Anthony Morse and Joseph Morse he left £10 apiece, and to Elizabeth Morse, £20. To his daughter Rebecca Somerby, in addition to the meadow and cattle he had given her when she married Abiel Somerby, £50 that he had then promised. To his son-in-law Henry Jaques and Ann, his wife, £5 to be paid within four years of his decease, or before if his executors could well do it. To his daughter Sarah Kelley and her husband John Kelley, his executors, all his housing and land, both upland and meadow, commonage and privileges belonging to the land, all his stock of cattle, horses, kine, sheep, and swine and all his goods during their lives. To his grandchild John Kelley, after his parents' death, the lot in the old town, joining unto Joseph Bailey's upland and the common, five acres of marsh meadow, five acres of marshland at Plum island, joining unto the land he had given to his daughter Rebecca Somerby. If John should die leaving no surviving child, these lands should go to his brother Jonathan Kelley, he paying his sister Rebecca Kelley £10. If John should live to enjoy the lands, he should pay his brother Jonathan £10.

[2] Records and Files, IV: 230.

To his grandchild Richard Kelley, his house, housing, barns, orchard and all the rest of his land, Richard to pay to his brother Abiel Kelley £20. If Richard should die leaving no surviving child, all the houses, barns, orchard and lands before mentioned should go to Abiel Kelley, he to pay his sister Sarah Kelley £20. Overseers: loving friends Mr. Nicholas Noyes, Robert Long, who were also witnesses.

"Nock, Nocke, Knock, Nox, Noax, Knox"

Now invariably written Knox & this may have been the correct spelling. "Knox" is a Scotch name, tho it sometimes comes to this country by way of the north of Ireland.

Not known when Thomas "Nock" came over or in what ship. If he stopped in Boston, he left no record there. He was among the quite early settlers of Dover, N.H. He was taxed in Dover in 1662-5 but he had doubtless ~~then~~ been there some years & had married. Among those whom young Knox found at Cocheco was Henry Tibbetts (had gr. of a ho. lot at Dover Neck in 1642. Was taxed in Dover in 1675. In 1679 "widow Tibbet and her son Jeremy" were taxed instead. He left a large family & has a numerous posterity scattered throughout N.E.) who had a family of grown sons & daughters. One of these, Rebecca Tibbets, became the w. of Thomas Knox. The year they were m. is not known. He had a grant of land in 1652. He d. as the result of an accident, 29 Oct. 1666, leaving a widow & 5 ch., the youngest being only abt. 8 mos. old. 28 Sept. 1669 the widow m. Philip Benmore (taxed at Dover 1670-75. Will dated 20 May 1676 & proved 27 June 1676) (Gave all his property to his wife Rebecca (Nock) Benmore. His kinsmen John Evans & Richard Rich - named Executors.) Rebecca died a widow 30 Mar. 1680.

Source - Thomas (Nock) Knox of Dover, N.H. in 1652 & some of His descendants (Comp. by W. B. LAPHAM - 1890)

In and around Dover the Knox families have frequently intermarried w/ the Wentworths, the Lords, the Rickers and other leading families.

JOHN LIBBY

FIRST LIBBY SETTLER ON THIS CONTINENT AND PROGENITOR OF THE AMERICAN LIBBY FAMILY.

SAILED FROM PLYMOUTH, ENGLAND, IN DEC. 1635, ARRIVED AT RICHMOND'S ISLAND FEB.13,1636, WHERE HE FAITHFULLY SERVED HIS TIME, THREE YEARS AT TRELAWNY PLANTATION.

HE THEN SETTLED ON THE CAMMOCK PATENT NEAR HIS PUBLIC LANDING PLACE AT ANTHONY'S COVE AT THE OUTER END OF THE OLD NECK, WHENCE AFTER 1663, HE REMOVED HALF A MILE N.EAST AND TWICE BUILT UPON THIS SPOT, WHERE HE DIED IN THE WINTER OF 1682 - 83.

IN KING PHILIP'S WAR HE LOST ALL BUT HIS PLANTATION, HIS CATTLE WERE KILLED, HIS HOUSE WAS BURNED, AND THE INHABITANTS FORCED TO FLEE, FOUR OF HIS SONS FOUGHT IN DEFENSE; TWO LOST THEIR LIVES.

ERECTED BY THE LIBBY ASSOCIATION,1932.

Surv. husb. by several years.

Said to be from Cornwall, Eng.; came over in the "Hercules" 163 with John Winter; arr. at Richmond Island, Scarborough, Maine, 13 Feb. 1636/7, under contract for 3 yrs. service which expired 13 Feb. 1639/40, aft. which he settled near "Libby's Neck," a spot out from view of the Prout's Neck summer settlement by Black Rock. Removed inland bef. 1 Jan. 1663/4, and built on the bank of Libby's River. "Libby's buildings" burnt in King Philip's War. He was at Black Point, Scarborough, Maine in 1640; 1st Selectman 1669. In Oct. 1676 Black Point Garrison was deserted; most of the inhabitants fled to Boston. John was still here 10 July 1677 with second wife and younger children, when he petitioned the governor & council there assembled that his sons, Henry & Anthony, on whom he stated he was dependant for support, might be discharged from the Black Point Garrison which at that time had again been taken possession of by the English. Petition was granted the same day. John probably returned to Black Point soon after and spent remaining years of his life there and acquired a comfortable property.

The family of Libby, one of the most ancient in Maine, is first mentioned in the herald's visitation of Oxfordshire, England for 1574, as stated by Charles T. Libby in this valuable & comprehensive work, "The Libby Family in America" from which most of the data herein is obtained. The name seems to have first appeared either in Cornwall or Devon, England & spread into other parts of that country. Tradition states that the originator of the American family came from the west of England, but of what stock, whether Saxon, Welch or French - is a matter of which no man has any knowledge.

"Barnstable - three Centuries of a Cape Town" - (Donald G. Trayser - 1939)

John Lothrop (1584-1653) came from an old Eng. family in LOWTHORPE & neighbouring parishes of York county. The name is spelled many ways - more commonly Lathrop or Lothrop. He spelled it Lothropp.

b. 1584, Etton & bap. there 20 Dec. 1584.

Received 2 degrees from Cambridge: Bachelor's, 1605; Master's, 1609.

m. (1) 1610 - a clergyman's dau., Hannah House or Howse.

In 1611 he became curate of parish church at Egerton, Kent Co., abt. 50 miles from London. His first 5 ch. were baptized there, the 5th on 31 Oct. 1619. Since none of his succeeding children were bap. there it seems probable that he withdrew from his curacy and the Church of England shortly after that date. By 1624 he was a Separatist of such note as to be called to succeed Henry Jacob whose will was probated in London 5 May 1624.

His London congregation, numbering about 60, met as quietly as possible in private houses but on Apr. 29 1632 the meeting was raided and he imprisoned. At the end of 2 yrs. he was released and in the fall of 1634 sailed for America. His first wife died while he was in prison. By her he had 9 ch.

m. (2) in America - and had 6 children by her.

"The Planters of the Commonwealth" Chas. Edw. Banks - 1930 says Mr. Lothrop ♀ w/ Rev. & 7 ch.

Arriving on 18 Sept. 1634 at Boston was the "Griffin" and a companion ship bringing 200 passengers & 100 head of cattle. Among the passengers were "two godly ministers" one of them Lothrop. From Boston he went directly to Scituate where he stayed till 1639 departure for Barnstable; where he died 8 Nov. 1653.

Notes from Diary: "arrived Scituate the night before 28 of Sept. 1634 which was the Lord's day." List of Houses in Scituate:

1. Mr. Hatherlyes
2. Mr. Cudworthes
3. Mr. Gillsonns
4. Goodman Anniballs
5. Goodman Rowlyes
6. Goodman Turners
7. Goodman Cobbes
8. Goodman Hewes
9. Edward Ffosters

"all wch small plaine pallizadoe Houses," owned mostly by "men of Kent," these houses were on Kent St., "compact," on small lots, "for purposes of mutual defense." There were 50 or more when Lothrop moved to Barnstable, scattered over a considerable territory. Pallizadoe houses were built by sticking upright in the ground, or in sills, two parallel rows of poles & filling the spaces between with stones & mud. Often mere sheds, sometimes called "booths", they might have only only 1 room and be floorless, but corresponding to the log cabins built by pioneers in a more heavily timbered country, they varied in size and comfort.

In Scituate: "Upon the 23 of Novemb 1634 ?[our] or Breathren of Situate that were members at Plimoth were dismissed from their membershipp, in case they joyned in a body att Situate." Those dismissed prob. inc. Annable who & in 1623 by the Ann or her companion ship, Cobb, Cooper, Cudworth, Foxwell, Lewis, Bernard Lumbard, son of Thomas, & Rowley. All these, John Robinson's son Isaac (who & in Lion in 1631) and Thomas Lumbard were in America before John Lothrop and his son Thomas. Except for Henry Bourne and the Crocker brothers – William & John – who might have come over with Lothrop, the others who went with him to Barnstable are thought to have reached America after him. Betts, Sam Hinckley & his son Thomas, who & in Hercules in 1635 & Shelley were in Scituate by 1636. Wm. Carseley & probably John (the two perhaps unrelated), Ewell, Fitzrandolph, Jackson, Linnell, & Wells were there for only a short time before moving to Barnstable. These are 26 of the 45 men named in Barnstable town records as townsmen Jan. 5, 1643/4. The list is essentially inadequate as it includes men like Betts, Cudworth & Ewell who soon moved elsewhere & omits names like Blossom, Davis & Fuller. Two sons of Thos. Blossom, who was a deacon at Leyden & at Plymouth, came to Barnstable in 1639 with their fa-in-law ?[step-fa:] Henry Rowley but were not of age.

Barnstable's Indian name was "Mattakeese" (Mattacheese). It has been variously translated as "old fields", "planted fields", and "worn out fields." Otis pictures the move to Barnstable in two detachments – the first travelling by land, driving most of the stock, & the larger group "came by water"; arr. at Barnstable between latter part of June and 11 Oct. 1639. Lothrop came by land arr. 10 Oct. & Deacon Cobb came by water arr 11 Oct. 1639. The distance between Scituate & Barnstable by land is abt. 60 miles, by water 40 miles.

Lothrop's second house was built 1644 & now is a part of the Sturgis library. The first house of Lothrop was lived in by Henry Rowley & his family when Lothrop moved into his second house. The first meeting house was across from Mr. Hull's just to the west of what became the burial ground. Lothrop recorded June 1, 1646 as "beeing the 2d Sabbath of our meeting in our new meeting house." It was replaced in 1681 by a larger bldg. on Coggin's Pond near the house of Thomas Hinckley, the Governor. Dissatisfaction at both ends of the village with that location led, in 1718, to a division of the town into 2 precincts, the west & the east. (Lothrop's first house stood nr. where the Barnstable Inn is at present.)

was in Mass. as early as 25 June 1649 & prob. sometime before on that date Edward Bullock of Dorchester in Col. of Mass. Bay being on point of departure for Eng. made his will & ment. therein "to S. Mason for wife's shoes" (Suffolk Co. wills vol. 1 p. [illegible])

Sampson Mason was a soldier in Cromwell's army & he came to America upon the turn of the times in Eng. & settled in Rehoboth. On the 9th day of Mar. 1650/51 S. Mason, designated shoemaker, purchased from William Betts his house & home lot in Dorchester, the lot containing 6 acres. (Suffolk Co. Deeds vol. 1 p. 127) - By later purchase the lot was enlarged to 6 & 1/2 acres.

The date of this purch. prob. indicates very nearly the time of his m. to Mary Butterworth prob. the dau. of John Butterworth of Weymouth in the Mass. Bay Col. & from various mentions it appears evident she was a sister of John B—— of Swansea

S— M— sold (19 Feb. 1655/6) to Jacob Hewins of Dorchester his ho. & home lot cont. 6 1/2 acres, 2 divisions in the commons of Dorch— (S— Co. Deeds vol. 4 p. 299-301)

The exact date of his removal to Rehoboth is unknown but records of the town have following entry "1657, Dec. 9. It was voted that S— M— should have free liberty to sojourn with us and to buy houses, lands or meadows, if he see cause for his settlement, provided he lives peaceably and quietly."

At this time the fam. of S— M— consisted of his wife & 3 ch. but upon his removal to Rehoboth, John, the third child, was left in Dorch—— to be brought up by John Gurnell or Gornell, a tanner of that town.

Births of the 10 younger ch. rec. in Rehoboth & prob. they were b. there, the 11th ch. is rec. in Rehoboth as being born nr. Providence Ferry & prob. the fa. was then living on a tract of land on Wachemoket Neck now E. Prov.—— R.I. It is evident that S— M— had acquired consid^{b} prop. when he rem. to Rehoboth & then entered extensively into the land speculations so common in his age.

Sampson Mason was 1 of the orig. Prop. and a subscriber to the agreement which took effect when the town of Swansea was inc. by the Court of Plym. 5 March 1668

"March 5, 1668. The township of Wannamoisett and the parts adjacent are established as Swansey." (Plym. Col. Rec. Vol. 4 p. 175)

In 1672 S— M— was allotted 12 acres of land in Swansea and it is prob. that upon this lot the house alluded to in his will was to be erected. There is no evidence that he rem. to Swansea & his bur. is rec. in Rehoboth Sept. 15, 1676. His pers. est. was large for his time & an extensive real estate amounted to many 100's of as. During K. P's war wh. broke out shortly bef. his death his widow contrib. £13.5s.10p. (the 9th largest in list of contributors from Rehoboth. She spent latter part of her life w/ her dau. Mary who m. Elder Ephraim Wheaton pastor of the First Bapt. ch. of Swansea. He res. in Rehoboth & Mary Mason's will is dated in that town & her d. rec. there as having occurred 29 Aug. 1714

"History & Genealogy of The Mead Family" - Spencer P. Mead - 1901

It appears that the name Mead is the English form of the Norman "de Prato". In 1180-1195 in the ancient Norman records are found the names of Wm., Robert, Matilda, Roger & Reginald de Prato & in 1198 the names of Richard & Robert de Prato. In 1199 Essex, Eng., occurs the name of Roger de Prato and in the same year also that of Walter de Prato in Hertford, Eng. & in 1212 those of Stephen & Peter de Prato.

Hervey de Prato, in 1200, in Normandy, was King John's "faithful knight," and the custody of Rouen Castle was given to his brother.

The Norman "de Prato" was translated into the English, Mead, Meade, Mede, Meads.

The 1st of the Meade family, who came originally from Somersetshire, into County Essex, in the reign of King Henry VI and settled at Elmdon, according to the history

1. of County Essex, was Thomas Meade, Esq. His son Thomas Meade purchased Wendon Lofts, in whose family it cont'd. for several generations.

2. Thomas Meade Esq. (Justice of the King's Bench) of Wendon Lofts, m. Joan Clamp of Huntingdon, a widow, by whom he had Thomas, Robert, & Matthew, of whom the last 2 never married. The fa. d. in May 1585 according to a monument erected to the memory of Thomas Meade, Esq. by his faithful wife Joan.

3. Sir Thomas Meade, had possession of it until his decease in 1617. He m. Bridget, dau. of Sir John Brograve, Knight of Hertfordshire by whom he had Thomas (who d. before him), John, Charles, George, Robert + 5 daughters. He was succeeded by his eldest surv. son

4. Sir John Meade, Knight, m. Katharine? + had Thomas his successor + 2 daughters.

5. Thomas, Meade, Esq., m. Margaret, only dau. & heiress of Debney of Norfolk by whom he had 9 ch. His successor his eldest son John

6. John Meade, m. Jane, dau. of William Wardour, Esq., + had John, who d. an infant, Jane who m. John Whaley, Merchant of London, + Margaret, the wife of William Pytches, of Crishall.

M1) 1 Jan. 1755 - Hannah, dau. of Rev. Dr. Benjamin Strong
Minister at Stanwich, Conn. M. taking place in the depth of winter. He rode the 50 miles from South Salem on horseback and the pair were m. at midnight! After the ceremony their wedding tour consisted of a horseback ride, she on a pillion behind, from Waterbury ~~to~~ in a terrible snowstorm in order not to disappoint those who had been invited to a reception at So. Salem.

Major Ebenezer^6 (4) of War of 1812

(2nd son) Enoch^6 Mead – b. Horseneck 9 Apr. 1756; d. 10 Sept. 1807
m. in his 20th yr. 1 Feb. 1776 Jemima, dau. of Caleb Mead, also in her 20th yr. – b. 12 Aug. 1756 She d. 4 Apr. 1837
as a wedding tour he & his bride took a trip thru Mass. on horseback & on their return settled abt. half-mile south of Lake Waccabuc on the N.Y. & Albany post road. Here he built a log house in which was born his eldest son, Solomon; but from this he soon moved to the house still standing (built during the Rev. War) but now owned & occupied by his desc. & known as "Elmdon" where he lived until 1805, when he went to Canton, St. Lawrence co., N.Y., which was really all wilderness at that time, there being only 6 families in that town. He began clearing a piece of land, but the mosquitoes & black flies were so thick that it was almost impossible to work. The only way he managed was to keep a brush in his hand, & each time he struck a blow w/the axe, the leaves would brush the insects from his face. He stayed in Canton until 1806, when he ret'd. to Vermont, remaining there until 1812. Served 3 mos. in War of 1812 when he rec'd. his discharge & went back to Canton through 50 miles of woods on foot.

9 ch.

4. Timothy Mead, born 22 April 1701 at Horseneck, Conn. Died ______ , __________, Vermont.

   Married 1) 28 Feb. 1723 to Martha Weeks, daughter of Philip and Martha (________) Weeks. She was born 8 Dec 1705 at Oyster Bay, L.I., N.Y. and died between 1730-34 at Manchester, Vermont.

   Married 2) Sarah Bouton

This is where the confusion begins.

Bready lists children of Timothy Mead^4 :

Four children by 1st wife: Timothy^5
(Martha Weeks) Martha^5
Zebulon^5
James^5 - born 25 Aug 1730 (Colonel)

Three children by 2nd wife: Stephen^5 - born 23 Jan 1734
(Sarah Bouton) Ezra^5 - born 9 Oct 1737
Tameson^5 - born 20 Nov 1739
(Married a Mr. Stark)

Sillicott & Benson show:

Children by Martha Weeks, the 1st & possibly ONLY wife: (?)

Timothy^5 b. 7 Jan 1724; mar Phebe Palmer
Martha^5, b 6 Sept 1726
(poss mar. Stephen Holmes??)
Zebulon^5 - b __ Oct 1728 mar 1) Anna Thompson - 2 sons
2) Mercy Cary - 9 more ch.
James^5(Col., the Pioneer) - b 6 Sept 1730
mar. Mercy Holmes
Stephen^5 b 23 Jan 1734; mar Polly White
Ezra^5 b 9 Oct 1737; mar Tryphena Burton

(These children also agree with The Mead Genealogy, by Spencer Mead)

5. Timothy Mead^5, born 7 Jan 1724, at Amenia, Dutchess Co., N.Y.
Died between 26 May and 3 July 1802 at Manchester, Bennington Co., Vermont, within a year following injuries from being gored by an ox.
Married 1) Phebe Palmer, daughter of William Palmer and Rachel (Tyler - as per Benson) Palmer
2) Sarah ___________

(Silcott contends, and Benson is inclined to agree with her, that the second wife of Timothy Mead^5 was Sarah Bouton. This conjecture arises from the WILL OF TIMOTHY MEAD, in which he mentions his "Beloved wife Sarah".

"WILL OF TIMOTHY MEAD JR. 20 May 1802. Court of Probate, Manchester District., 3 July 1802. County of Bennington, Judge Chris. Roberts, Esq.

Sets out specifically who is to have what of his estate-- home farm, barns, buildings, orchards, lanes, fulling mill, sawmill. Mentions beloved wife Sarah who received generous distribution. Widow and daughter Darkiss to have ₤20.oo pounds each. To remain their home so long as both remain single. There seems to be special mention of dau, Darkiss and son Israel, who were ? younger children. Darkiss to have equal share with Sarah.

Grandson Azel Mead (Truman's son) to receive Timothy's dwelling when widow and Darkiss have left it. Bequeaths 40 acres to daughters Rachel, Phebe, Zelliah, Elizabeth and Darkiss as their own dower. Daughter Rachel to divide her share with her sons Josiah and George Gale.

Leaves mills as follows: sons Israel, Philip, Timothy; gr.sons Azel and William."

"Same Court: Committee to apraise estate; make distribution and set off the widow's dower, which at that time was always ₤300." (or $300 ??)

Therefore, if Bready is correct that Sarah Bouton was the second wife of the father, Timothy^4, and mother to Stephen^5, Ezra^5 and Tameson^5, then Timothy^5, the son, did also marry a second time, also to a Sarah (whose surname is not known), as proved by his will quoted above.

Probably Israel and Dorcas, youngest children of Timothy^5, were still at home when their father died in 1802. The Manchester Vital Records prove their births to Timothy^5 and Phebe (Palmer) Mead. Israel was 27 at the time of his father's death and Dorcas 22 years.

If the death date of Phebe (Palmer)Mead could be found, probably a few years after Dorcas's birth in 1780, then it would be more easily understood that Timothy^5 married a second time and lived ten or 15 years with his second wife, Sarah ______.

Children of Timothy^5 and Phebe (Palmer) Mead: (as per Mead Gen. and Margaret Bready)

MEAD

Manchester, Vermont - Bigelow and Otis

Pg. 274 TIMOTHY MEAD (1724-1802)

Timothy Mead owes his measure of distinction in the early settlement of Manchester to his role as property owner and man of business rather than to service through public office. He was, however, elected postmaster in the northeast part of town in 1776 and 1778; fence viewer in 1794 and 1796; selectman for eight years; brander of horses; member of the committee to settle accounts with the town officers (auditors); and collector for the Proprietors' assessment in 1802. Mead became owner of 200 acres at Factory Point, which is now Manchester Center. He built a sawmill, gristmill, fulling mill, distillery and store there. Refusing to provide land for the erection of county building, he did, however, give land for the site of the Baptist Church, first near the Factory Point Cemetery and later at its present location.

Contradictions with reference to TAMSEN, wife of John Austin^6

1. Austin Genealogies and Mead Genealogy name her TAMSEN MEAD

Their children :

William b 1778	(a Mead given name)
Phebe, b 1780	" " " "
Chloe b 1782	(after Chloe Benedict, wife of Jacob Mead)
John, b 1784	(after father, John Austin^5)
Truman, b 1788	(after Tamsen's brother, Truman Mead)
James, b 1790
Rachel, b 1792	(after Mead family)

(Does this tally agree with the Manchester V.R. ??)

2. French Genealogy names her Tamsen Scofield (Proof???)

3. A Mrs. Brady of Schenevus, N.Y. (1984) says Tamsen Mead married Joseph Howe. (but it turns out that this Tamson was a daughter of Jacob^6 Mead, brother to Timothy^6. She was born 16 Sept 1792.)

Questions with reference to John^7 Austin, son of John^6 and Tamsen Austin

1. Austin Genealogy by Edith Austin Moore states that John^7 Austin, born 15 July 1784 at Manchester, Vt., married Lucy French, dau. of John and Catherine (Beardslee) French on 5 Aug 1805 at Dorset, Vermont. She also suggests that Catherine's name might be Price, not Beardslee. (Proof ???).

   The French Genealogy agrees with the name Catherine Beardslee.

2. Moore lists 8 children of John^7 & Catherine Austin:

   Eliza^8, born 19 July 1807, mar a _____ Colvin
   Calista^8, born 22 June 1809, mar John Putney

   2) Elvira Parks
   James^8, born 1 Nov 1818; mar Sarah Elizabeth Knapp
   Ira^8, born 11 July 1819 in N.Y. State; mar Sophia Wilson, dau of Ira and Relief Wilson. (prob. named after his mother's brother, Ira French.)
   Phidelia^8, born 8 Oct 1821; mar Silas Mill
   Harriet^8, born 8 Apr 1825, N.Y.; mar Perry Parks
   Sophia^8, born 8 June 1828 , N.Y.; mar James J. Hull

   (All lived in Erie County, N.Y.; 3 are buried in Hamburg, N.Y.)

   Ira^8 Austin named his fourth & last child Lucy Maria, probably after his mother. The other 3 bear Wilson names.

3. French Genealogy names 7 children of John^{7} & Lucy (French) Austin, & omits son Ira.

For the record:

1. Probate Records from Manchester, Vt. prove that John Austin^{6} died at Hamburg, Erie County, New York, prior to April, 1838, age 84

   Did Tamsen die at Dorset, Vt. ? (Their last child was born in Dorset (Alanson Mead Austin) in 1801.) A letter from the National Archives states that prior to 1830 he was in Hamburg, N.Y., but returned to Dorset in 1830 & lived with a daughter & grand-daughter. He later went back to Hamburg where he died. No mention of wife.

2. John^{7} Austin and wife Lucy lived in Hamburg, N.Y. as did Truman and James, his brothers. John and Lucy are in the 1855 Erie County Census in Hamburg, ages 70 & 69 respectively. They are not in the 1860 Census. Although Prospect Lawn Cemetery, Hamburg, N.Y. records are incomplete, the gravestone for Lucy Austin, wife of John, was located (laying flat & buried), proving that she died in 1857. It is assumed that he died between 1855 & 1860 , and is also buried in Hamburg. No probate records were found.

   Moore states that John Austin^{7} lived in Hamburg for 44 years, making his arrival in that town about 1818. That is the year that son, Ira, was born. The 1860 census says Ira was born in New York, so we assume it was in Hamburg, The later children were born in Hamburg. Eliza, Calista, James & Harmon were probably born in Vermont (Dorset??)

3. Although Ira died intestate, probate material found in Buffalo, the county seat for Erie County, N.Y., reveal that Ira frequently borrowed money from his father-in-law, Ira Wilson, his father, John Austin, along with others. In order to pay off these debts and settle his estate, his farm in Hamburg (East Hamburg) was put up for sale. It included"200 acres of cleared and fenced land, 2 frame dwelling houses, 2 large barns, a saw mill and an orchard with 300 bearing apple trees".

Dear Mrs. Jones:

I note with interest your query in the June 1979 issue of The Connecticut Nutmegger. While I cannot provide information on Tamsen Mead, I have accumulated data on the Mead family in general. There is so little to be gleaned from present-day Meads in Vermont, that I give up, but now and then return to them in the hope something specific has appeared. Through the years, my Bible has been the genealogy of the Mead family by Spencer P. Mead, pub. in 1901. There are those who claim there are many errors therein, and indeed there probably are, but am glad it was compiled and published. My line goes like this:

1. William Mead, b. 1600, England. From port near Lydd, Kent, on ship "Elizabeth", April 1635; to Boston Harbor, June 1635. D. 19 Sept. 1663, Stamford, Ct. Md. 1625 -- wife Martha? dau. Elijah Davis? she d. 19 Sept. 1657. Ch: Joseph, Martha and John.

2. John Mead, b. 1634, Eng. d. 5 Feb. 1692. md. 1657, Hannah Potter, dau. Wm..Potter. Settled at Horseneck, N.Y. Ch.: John; Joseph; Hannah; Ebenezer; Jonathan & David, twins; Benjamin; Nathaniel; Samuel; Abigail and Mary on which there is no record.

3. 4Jonathan Mead, b. ca 1665. d. 1727. md. 1688, Martha Finch. Mvd. to Nine Partners, Dutchess Co., N.Y. where he died. Ancestor of Horseneck Meads. Ch.: Jonathan; Sarah, b. 1691, md. Jonathan Waterbury; James; Martha, b. 11 Dec. 1693, md. Stephen Holmes; Isaac; Timothy; Mary; Hezekiah; Rachel.

4. Timothy Mead, b. 22 Apr. 1701, Horseneck, N.Y. md. 25 Feb. 1723, Martha Weeks. Ch.:

Timothy, b. 7 Jan. 1724; md. Phebe Palmer
Martha, b. 6 Sept. 1726, Stephen Holmes
Zebulon, b. Oct. 1728. m/1, Anna Thompson & had two sons; m/2 Mercy Cary & had 9 ch.
James, (Col., The Pioneer), b. 6 Sept. 1730, md. Mercy Holmes
Stephen, b. 23 Jan. 1734. md. Polly White
Ezra, n. 9 Oct. 1736. md. Tryphens Burton.

5. Ezra Mead, b. 22 Apr. 1737, Horseneck, N.Y. or Hartford, Ct. d. after 1790, Rutland, Vt. md. 20 Feb. Tryphens Burton. b. 10 Aug. 1743, Preston, Ct.; d. 4 Sept. 1780. Ch.: Isaac; Silas; Lydia; Rufus; Ezra; Tryphena; Solomon; Michael; Lydia; Mary; Josiah; Dorcas; Peter; Chnthis.

6. Ezra Mead, b. 9 Aug. 1766. d. 7 Dec. 1856, Champaign Co. Ohio, where he moved abt. 1838, having moved to Licking Co. Oh. 1808. Md. Hannah Sampson abt. 1786-7, prob. Cornwell, Vt. Ch.: Silas; Polly (Mary); Ezra; Stillman; Hannah; Helon

The Mead book says Timothy^4 m/2 Sarah Bouton. This I do not believe. I am convinced that Martha Weeks was his only wife and the mother of their children.

In 1975, I noticed ads of genealogist Darby G. Livingston, P.O. Box 467, Bennington, Vt. 05201, and wrote him to inquire if he could locate a will by Timothy^4. He did not, but sent copy of a will by Timothy^5, 1802. The Mead book shows his wife as Phebe Palmer. In this will, he mentions "my beloved wife Sarah". That did it for me, for Spencer Mead had given Sarah Bouton to the father, rather than to the son Timothy, Jr.

Enclosed is a little composition I worked up recently on these Meads which explains my theory. The Mead book gives the 13 Timothy^5 children, and have made up a family group chart which is enclosed. You could get Xerox of this will from the Manchester Co. CH at Bennington. The list of children shows nothing of Tamsen, except she married John Austin. I used on the group chart some of your figures, but do not understand, "Amenia NY 1769. Dorset 1780 RevW". In this book, there is nothing about some o f the daughters, except the names of their husbands.

Since my branch is from Ezra^6, I have no interest in the Palmer family, but in some papers sent me by another person there is reference to the Palmer line. I will give you the very little on them should you not have it. Didn't want to duplicate anything you may have.

As I understnad it, Timothy^4 and all his sons had a brief service in the RevW. I believe you can write the DAR in Washington, 1776 D Street, N.W. 20006 for copies of accepted applications on the two Timothys. I have neglected to do this for myself -- Timothy, Sr., that is. The information sent me is that Timothy, Sr. had 3 days @ 1.0 per day. Timothy, Jr., 7 days, beginning 9 June 1781. Both men Revolutionary Rolls, P. 227. Payroll of Capt. Thomas Bull's Co., Col. Ira Allen's Regt. of Militia for "service done the State of Vermont on alarm". Somewhere it was said Timothy, Sr. guarded a border, but don't find the reference today. The DAR applications would probably have a few more details.

If you don't have something of Phebe Palmer and desire it, would suggest you write Mrs. Harry N. Deyo, 808 Church St., Plymouth, Mich., 48170. She showed that Phebe was the dau. of Wm. Palmer of Scituate, d. 1661; md. 1661 Elizabeth _______, Newton, R.I. Wm. was son of a William, Duxbury, MA., wife Francis.

Have you tried to learn whether John Austin, b. Stanwich, Ct., has a RevW service? A possibility. DAR Might have accepted applications under his service.

I am more than interested in the Meads, especially as data applies to Timothy^4, Timothy^5, Ezra^5, and Ezra^6, and will be pleased to hear from you as you pursue your quests.

Sincerely,

Bernice Silcott

Supplementary Notes on Mead Family to Accompany Family Group Charts for Timothy^5 Mead.

TIMOTHY^4 MEAD b. Horseneck, Twp. of Greenwich, Ct., 22 April 1701. To Nine Partners, Dutchess Co., N.Y. before 1730. Near present-day Pine Plains.

TIMOTHY^4 MEAD, son of Jonathan^3 Mead, b. ca 1655. d. 1727. Md. ca 1683, Martha Finch, dau. John and Martha (Hoyt) Finch. John Finch d. 5 Sept. 1657, Stamford, Ct. Ch.: Isaac; Samuel; Joseph; Martha; Abraham; John. The Widow Martha (Finch) Mead md. Timothy Knapp in Greenwich, Ct.
TIMOTHY^4 MEAD with his family, which consisted of five sons and one dau. probably came to Manchester, Vt. in 1764. They were: Timothy, b. 1724; Zebulon, b. 1728; Martha, 1726; James, b. 1730; Ezra, b. 1737; Stephen, b. 1734. They were all married.

TIMOTHY^5 MEAD md. Martha Weeks, 28 Feb. 1723. Martha bpt. 7 Dec. 1705, Oyster Bay, L.I., N.Y. Dau. Philip (1678-1710-11) and Martha Weeks. d. 1759, prob. Bennington Co. Vt.

In 1768, at Manchester, the inhavitants were almost entirely from Dutchess Co. N.Y. First division of lots was made during summer of 1764. The territory of this division contained nearly 7,000 A. Included site of Manchester and Factory Point. Geprge W. Gale wrote that Timothy, Sr. settled about 2 Mi. above village of Manchester, a place called Mead's Mills from mills he erected and owned by him.

Timothy, Jr. had some 500 A. at Factory Point (now Manchester Center). A part of this had been given him by the proprietors as a reward for erecting the first grist mill in the town about 1780. Burial place for him and family not found.

Will of Timothy^4 Mead, if any, not found.

Will of Timothy^5 Mead, Jr. 20 May 1802. Court of Probate, Manchester Dist., 3 July 1802. Co. of Bennington. Judge Chris. Roberts, Esq. Sets out specifically who is to have what of his estate -- home, farm, barns, buildings, orchards, lanes, fulling mill, saw mill. Mentions beloved wife Sarah who received generous distribution. Widow and dau. Darkiss to have $20.00 each. To remain their home so long as both remain single. Seems to be special mention of dau. Darkiss and son Israel, who would be very minor children. She to have equal share with her mother.

Grandson Azel Mead (Truman's son) to receive Timothy's dwelling when Widow and Darkiss have left it. Bequeaths 40 A. to daus. Rachel, Phebe, Zelliah, Elizabeth and Darkiss as their own dower. Dau. Rachel to divide her share with her sons Josiah and George W. Gale. There is no information about a son William. Nor son Truman and a dau. Tamsen, which would indicate they are deceased.

Leaves mills as follows: sons Israel, Philip, Timothy; grandsons Azel and William.

Same Court: Committee to appraise estate; make distribution and set off the widow's dower, which at that time was always $300.00.

Geo. W. Gale wrote his grandmother Mead (Phebe) died a little before his mother (Rachel), very suddenly, and his grandfather married again. She survived his father and mother (Rachel and Josiah Gale) several years. This would seem to be very definite proof that the second Timothy did marry again, and she was evidently Sarah Bouton, probably the mother of Israel and Dorcas.

George Washington Gale (1789-1861), in his biog., says he was born in Dutchess Co., N.Y. A sister, Dorcas Gale, b. 9 Nov. 1777 m. Havibad Burnnell. Dau. O Josiah and Rachel Gale; granddaughter of Timothy Mead.

A reference has been given:

> "Autobiography Written for the Benefit of Children or Rather for Their Satisfaction in Time to Come" by Geo. Washington Gale (1853), son of Josiah and Rachel (Mead) Gale, has some information about his grandfather, Timothy Mead, among many of his other relatives, a most interesting history".

Have no idea where this could be located. It is said he was a founder of Knox College, Galesburg, Illinois.

Dear Mrs. Jones,

I am sorry to have delayed so long in answering your letter. I have had serious surgery, entered the hospital the latter part of June and am only now getting started with my big collection of correspondence.

I was glad to have your letter with all the various opinions about the Meads, but, of course, am sorry that you weren't armed with the exact answers to my problems. I have searched so long and corresponded with so many people concerning my Meads, Palmers, and Gales, that I fear I shall always have to have my records in those departments liberally sprinkled with question marks. But I can always hope for a miracle.

Yes, I recall my correspondence with Miss Silcott. She must have done a lot of correspondence concerning the Meads as I have letters from a number of other people referring to their correspondence with her.

I recall going through Silver Creek many times in years past. I was born in Penn Yan, N.Y., and the Andrews family for several generations (my maiden name) had lived in Reading, near Watkins Glen. Though we moved from there many years ago, we have been back on visits at various times.

Sincerely,

Dear Mrs. Jones,

Your Austin-Mead query in the new Nutmegger has me all excited about Meads. Perhaps you can give me some information I do not have about Meads and have been searching for many years. I have the data on the Mead family as given in "History and Genealogy of the Mead Family" by Spencer P. Mead, but I have understood from the genealogist at the library where I have done much of my research that he was much inclined to confuse the records. I also have data on Timothy Mead from "Manchester, Vermont" by Bigelow and Otis, a copy of which I am enclosing. Many years ago I visited Manchester and copied very sketchily some data from Manchester V.R., land records, and Probate Records, including the will of Timothy Mead, dated May 20, 1802 and probated July 3, 1802. My notes show that he mentioned wife Sarah, dau. Dorcas Mead, sons Israel, Jacob, grds. Aze, daus. Rachel, Elizabeth, Dorcas, son Truman, Rachel's sons George and Josiah, sons Philip, Timothy, grds. Wm. Mead. That seems to leave out your Tamzen, and Elthea, of the children listed in the genealogy. I took these notes very early in my genealogical experience, and didn't seem to know enough to copy data thoroughly. I was searching for any information concerning the dau. Phebe who married Noah Gale, supposedly (though not proved) parents of my great-great-grandmother, Dorcas Gale Bunnell. Births of Israel, son of Timothy and Phebe Mead b. July 14, 1775, and of Dorcas, their dau. b. Mar. 4, 1780 were listed in the V.R. I had noted that chil. of John and Tamzon Mead Austin were also given in the Manchester V.R., but I did not list them. You do not list Manchester, Vt., as residence ot Timothy and Phebe, and I have never run across any reference to Dorset as their home.

Note that Sarah is given as wife of Timothy in his will. So he must have married a 2nd time. A correspondent and I have wondered if perhaps the Sarah Bouton given as 2nd wife of our Timothy's father could perhaps have been 2nd wife of the son instead. Perhaps one of Spencer Mead's many errors. I have never discovered any reference to Rev. service for our Timothy. He would have been in his fifties. Where did you get the information that he did serve?

Do you have the ancestry of Timothy as given by Spencer Mead? If not I can supply it? From a correspondent I have received the ancestry of Martha Weeks, mother of our Timothy, but I have not found the references to check it out. The American Genealogist Vol. 48 has an article by Paul W. Prindle "Some Early Finch-Mead Problems" which gives the ancestry for Martha, wife of our Timothy's grandfather Jonathan Mead. Do you have this?

Now, as to what I am most concerned about and hope you can tell me. First do you have any further information about my Phebe Mead who married Noah Gale? And what do you know about the ancestry of Timothy's wife Phebe Palmer? "Palmer Families in America" by Horace Wilbur Palmer (1966) gives her father as William Palmer and her mother as Rachel Fowler. I have had correspondence with several people concerning the Fowler line, one of whom gave Rachel Fowler as dau. ofEdmund Fowler and Rachel Hunt and the Fowler Genealogy by C.C. Fowler does give a dau. Rachel for them as having married a Palmer, so I thought I had the Fowler and related lines all set.

Then another correspondent wrote that she had found that that Rachel Fowler had married a different Palmer, in which case I have to toss out several grandpas and grandmas I thought I had. Have you done anything with this line? Phebe (Palmer) Mead's grandparents were Wm. Palmer and Mary Tyler, and I have the Tyler ancestry. The next generation back is another Wm. Palmer and Judith Feake and I have six generations, very interesting, of her English ancestry. Do you need this? Given in N.Y. Gen. & Biog. Rec. Vols. 86 and 87.

I have Austins on my family tree, also. Line from John and Mercy Atwater of New Haven, Conn. Is this your line?

Sincerely,

Dear Miss Silcott,

I am interested in you item in the June "Nutmegger" indicating a desire to correspond with descendants of Timothy Mead. I feel that you are not a stranger to me as I have copies of letters and data you sent several years ago to Mrs. Henry L. Kennedy, with whom I had some correspondence about the Meads.

I wonder if the "Nutmegger" editor made some errors in printing your dates, as dates given do not agree with my data - yours a century later.

One of my great-great grandmothers was Dorcas (Gale) Bunnell, born Nov. 9, 1777 Dutchess Co., N.Y. I have not been able to prove her ancestry, but I have a wealth of circumstantial evidence which suggests she was daughter of Noah and Phebe (Mead) Gale, of Amenia, N.Y., in 1790. This Phebe Mead was daughter of Timothy and Phebe (Palmer) Mead. My data shows that this Timothy Mead was born Jan. 7, 1724 and died from being gored by an ox. His will was dated May 20, 1802 and probated July 3, 1802. His will names wife Sarah (not Phebe). I have never found a record of his marriage to a Sarah. According to records I have it was his father Timothy who married (2) Sarah Bouton. I wonder if this could be an error, and it was the 2nd Timothy who married Sarah Bouton, or is there another Sarah involved? The genealogist at the library in Cleveland, where I have done a lot of my research, said that Spencer P. Mead's genealogy and history were so full of errors, guesses, and confusions about the Meads that it would have been better if he had not tried to write the genealogy.

I visited Manchester, Vt., some years ago and looked up Timothy's will, some land records, and some vital records. Unfortunately it was in the early days of my genealogical searching and I didn't know enough to copy all the data I should have, or even some of the possibilities of searching, which might have helped. I do have the highlights only. Unfortunately I did not find anything on the children of Noah and Phebe (mead) Gale, which I had hoped for, though there were some references to sons of Josiah and Rachel (Mead) Gale. I have data from Bigelow and Otis' hist.of Manchester, Vt., and a paragraph or so on Timothy Mead sent me by a Manchester resident, a friend of a friend, evidently taken from material in the Whipple Collection. If you want any of these items I shall be glad to copy for you.

"Autobiography Written for the Benefit of Children or Rather for Their Satisfaction in Time to Come" by George Washington Gale (1853), son of Josiah and Rachel (Mead) Gale, has some information about his grandfather, Timothy Mead, among many of his other realtives, a most interesting history.

In your study of the Mead family have you ever come across any data that would help me to prove that Noah and Phebe (Mead) Gale had a daughter Dorcas who could have been my great-great grandmother, Dorcas (Gale) Bunnell? I know that various records list only three sons for Noah Gale, but census record indicates otherwise, and G. W. Gale in his autobiography mentions that his uncle, Noah Gale had a number of children, mostly daughters.

Dear Marian Jones, 24 October, 1984

I am sorry to be so long in answering your letter, which was due to straightening out my husband's affairs after his death 30th of May this year, and also trying to catch up on typing for the Cape Cod Genealogical Society. Early this year I was asked to take over the job of making an index for 1982's 4 Bulletins due to the death of the member who had been doing it. I had previously taken over from the original member who died June 1979 and in turn had to give it up when my husband became sick in 1980. I completed doing the last 3 bulletins for 1979 and and the index for the 4 bulletins for that year and then the first 2 bulletins for 1980. Mr. Harrison who followed me on doing the Indexes, did it for 1980 and 1981 and he died August 1982. Since they hadn't found anyone to take it over I was the one they ended up with doing the work. The 1982 was easy but the 1983 was a real "humdinger." I finally got it to the proofreader a week ago Saturday. Last week I was busy catching up with my mail and sorting more of my husband's belongings to go to his relatives, since we had no children to inherit them.

You are the 3rd contact I have had with C.S.G. since I gave up my membershipthis year. I couldn't keep track of the ever-changing membership lists and the errors.

I read your letter over again and will answer the question at the end of it. It is a fact there were 3 Timothys in direct descent: Timothy^4, his son Timothy^5 and his grandson Timothy^6. Timothy^4 - b. 22 April 1701, Horseneck, Ct. [now Greenwich]

I found it - even with my check marks - so I would copy it. I copied in my record - John Austin m. 1773 and notation of cource. I read it more thoroughly this time. b. ?Stanwich, Ct. I never heard of it and couldn't find it on my old Conn. map [lived there 5 yrs. before retiring to Cape Cod.] Wondered if it was meant to be Greenwich or Stamford?

Zillah^{6} -
Elthea^{6} -
Elizabeth^{6} -
Dorcas^{6} -
No information on any of them.

Timothy^{6} - I do not have any information on his 12 children. Probably didn't bother with it when I started working on the Mead genealogy as it wasn't my line.

Nowadays I copy everything I can and hang onto it - it may come in handy later.

I have a listing of 43 sources of information - mostly from my sister in Maine, but she would type me the information and then list all the sources. I like to make notes of the source for each one by just adding the source #. It helps.

[It certainly had a lot of information but I gave up trying to copy it all. I believe I copied all the cemetery names and locations and the names when there were only a few - but several of them were over a hundred listings and one was listing 576. I borrowed it from N.E.H.G. Society. Someday I may borrow it again and try to copy any inscription for the family names I'm interested in searching.]

P.S. No charge for this but if I can borrow any books from NEHG to help you I'll be glad to do so after Nov, 10th. Hope I haven't made too many mistakes. Want to get it in mail today! M.

The name "Mead is the English form of the Norman "de Prato." Hervey de Prato in 1200, in Normandy, was King John's Knight and the custody of Rouen Castle was given to his brother. In 1180-95, there is found in the Norman records the names of William, Robert, Matilda, Roger and Reginald de Prato and in 1198 those of Richard and Robert de Prato. The following yr. in Essex, Eng., occurs the name of Roger de Prato, and the same yr. also that of Walter de Prato in Hereford, England. The first of the Mead or Meade family who came originally from Somersetshire into co. Essex was Thomas Meade, Esq., who in the reign of King Henry VI settled at Elmdon.
coats of arms of both Wm. & Gabriel (or Goodman) are identical
The coat-of-arms is thus described: Sable, a chevron between three pelicans or vulnant gules. The family crest motto - "Semper Paratus."

The Mead mix-up is really something. I have Jonathan[5] as s. of Timothy[4], by 2d wife. But I wasn't positive (re pencil notes in margin). Did have the Jonathan, who m. Sarah Thompson, listed as s. of the earlier Jonathan.[4] Wills, and/or land records might really solve the whole puzzle. When cemetery records don't agree with town vital records and then you add compiled genealogies to both - you can't be surprised when discrepancies show up. To err is human - and all that sort of thing. Maybe we'll get it all straightened out some day. Fun trying, anyway. Alice

Dear Mrs. Bready:

I noted in the Ancestry Service of the Conn.Nutmegger that you,like myslef,are a descendant of Zebulon Mead of Greenwich,Nine Partners,and Rutland. I am descended through my grandmother who was a great-granddaughter of Martin Mead, brother of Zebulon jr.

I was hoping you might be able to help me with one or two items I'm working on at present: 1) I am curious about Anna Wright, wife of Zebulon jr. I have nothing except her birth,death,and marriage dates. Martin Mead married Freelove Wright,daughter of Simeon Wright and Freelove(Foote) and I suspect that Anna Wright was some relation to Simeon; a sister perhaps, which may help me in my Wright search.

2)Do you have any clues as to the maiden name of Martha Weeks,wife of Philip,and mother of the Martha who married Timothy Mead?

3) After years of written statements that William (1) Mead's wife was named Martha, I recently came across an article in TAG which called her Philippa but without any reference to the source of that name. Do you know anything about it?

I would appreciate any help you might be able to offer, and of course,if I have anything you may be missing, I'll be happy to send it along.

Sincerely yours,

Dick Rees

Dear Mrs. Bready:

Many thanks for your reply to my letter about the Mead family. I would very much like to have a copy of the inscription on Mercy Mead's tombstone (envelope enclosed).

You are right about her parentage: her line is:

1. John Cary ca 1610-1681 & Elizabeth Godfrey d 1680
2. David Cary 1658-1718 & Elizabeth Brackett 1671-ca 1727
3. Henry Cary 1711-1802 & Abigail Paul ca 1707-?
4 Mercy b 28 Aug 1735 Ashford, Ct, m Zebulon Mead ca 1754 or later

Here is what I have on the Weeks family:

1. Francis Weeks b ca 1616 d 1687 Oyster Bay,NY M ca 1640 Elizabeth ***
2. Samuel Weeks b ca 1643 d 1698 Oyster Bay, M.ca 1670 Elizabeth Reddock,dau Henry
3. Philip b ca 1675, d ca 1710 Oyster Bay, M.Martha ***
4. Martha b 8 Dec 1705 Oyster Bay, M.Timothy Mead 28 Feb 1723 (I don't have death for her as yet,but she apparently died in Manchester Vt.)

I suspect Anna Thompson was a sister of Asa Thompson who lived near the Meads in Dutchess County,NY. Others were Amos Thompson who was related to Asa, and Sara Thompson, probably the wife of Asa. She later married one of the Meads.

I recall finding that information about Martha Davis being the wife of William Mead. I can't remember where it came from but I discarded it after checking it. It was probably just another case of/similar names. I think I will write to the author of the TAG article in which "Philippa" was used as the name of Wm's wife, and see where he or she got that.

Thank you for the offer of the Foote information, but I have just about everything on them back to the mid-1500s.

Sincerely,

Dick Rees

Dear Eastham Residents:

During the past half century Eastham has been endowed with two excellent Treasurers and Tax Collectors who gave superlative service to our town. The two ladies are Belle Brackett and Edith Lindholm. Belle has retired and Edith is soon to retire. It is most important that this type of service be continued.

The duties of this office are manifold. In addition to preparing and mailing out the varied bills to us townspeople, she issues the employee paychecks, pays approved bills, invests available town funds to earn interest and thus help reduce our taxes.

Perhaps you will agree with me in stating that the most important job in Eastham is that of Treasurer and Tax Collector. After discussions with Edith, I feel my expertise in office management and extensive legal background offer the experience necessary to carry out the duties of this job. Having worked in a law firm environment for many years, I know quite well how important it is to maintain a viable cash flow and accurate records... something the Town must deal with regularly... and to work within the confines of a modest budget.

My experience includes eight years as an Executive/Legal Secretary; five years as a Legal Assistant/Office Manager; in Appeals and am a Notary Public of the Commonwealth.

My qualifications and skills include:

* Strong background in bookkeeping and accounting
* Experienced in implementing Trust and Client Accounts in the six figures
* Interacting with the public and office employees daily
* Organization and maintenance of filing and record keeping systems, including various computers
* Proficient in all areas of payroll disbursement and tax reporting
* Efficient time manager and detail oriented
* Maintain confidentiality when exposed to classified information
* Efficiently handle client billing and collection
* Delegate responsibility
* Dedicated, loyal and possess common sense

I hope you will consider my qualifications for this position and support me in my bid for election!

The Welsh Progenitors of the Merrick Family in America in Introduction to "Merrick, Mirick, Myrick Family" by George Byron Merrick 1902

From Lewis Doon's Visitation, of Pembrokeshire, England

Motto of the Welsh Meyricks -
"Heb Dduw heb ddim: Dduw a digon."
"Without God nothing; God and enough."

Morfil Parish - Rev. William Mirick, ap Llewellyn, son of Heylin, son of Einion (the Saxon), of Bodorgan, Anglesey, married Angharad, dau. of William. Their son, Meyrick, married Margaret, dau. of Roland, son of Howel of Gaer Geilog, Esquire. Their son Rev. John Meyrick, Minister at Llanllechyd, married Sage, daughter of James Griffith, son of Howel, son of Thomas, son of David, son of Griffith, son of Gronwy the Red. (The mother of Sage was Maud, the daughter of Morgan Lloyd, son of Ieuan Lloyd, of Bant y Streimon, Esquire).
The mother of Sage's father was Sage, daughter of Thomas, son of Griffith, son of Nikolas, sister to father and mother of Sir Ryp.

The children of Rev. John Mirick and Sage his wife, were

1. William Meyrick
2. Owen Meyrick Minister at Llangylle.
3. Maud (she m. Roland Powel, son of John Powel, Esquire. Their ch. were: 1. John Powel; 2. Jan (Jane?)
4. John Meyrick
5. Owen Meyrick (1591)
6. Robert Meyrick (1591)
7. Janet (1591)
8. Thomas
9. Jan (perhaps Jane)

(Signed) "Pr me, "Wm. MEVRICK, "Klerk."

"Dated this 13th day of October, in the 33rd year of Queen Elizabeth's reign and in the year of our Lord 1591."

I. William Meyrick married 1st, Janet, dau. of Ienen, son of John, son of Ienen, son of Llewellyn of Ryp, son of Howell Young.

III. John Meyrick, marries Dorothy, daughter of Matthew Bishop. (Her mother Elizabeth, was daughter of Robert Young, brother to Bishop Young.) A footnote says "Bishop of St. Davids").

The English descendants of Meyrick ap Llewellyn had among them many men of prominence in the church, in the army and in letters. Sir Rhys Merrick's "Ancient Arms and Armour" is quoted as an authority the world over. Sir John Merrick represented England at the Russian Court as Ambassador in 1612. Six were knighted, by different sovereigns of England. One, Sir Gelly Merrick was knighted on the field at the siege of Cadiz, for brilliant and gallant services at the storming of that stronghold.

Inhabitating as they did the island of Anglesey, it is probable that many younger sons followed the sea for gold or glory. It is stated by one writer that Sir Henry Morgan, the Buccaneer, the "scourge of the Spanish Main," wrote his name "Morgan ap Meyrick," Morgan the son of Meyrick. Certainly, later generations might be credited with an hereditary love of the ocean, hundreds of Merricks having followed the sea as an occupation; and no less than a score of them were lost at sea from the port of Nantucket alone, dying a "natural death," as it was reckoned by the hardy whalers of that seaman's paradise.

John Mirick (3d of the 4 brothers who & from Bristol, England, in the ship "James" in 1636

The history of Hingham has the following, relating to a John Mirick:
- "John Mirick had a grant of land in Hingham in 1637.
He had a son John and probably a widow Elizabeth, who d. at Roxbury 25 June 1650. John d. 2 July 1647.
In 1649 13/10 Elizabeth Morick of Roxbury granted unto Thos. Thexter of Hingham, in consideration of 18 pounds sterling by him paid, 20 acres and halfe of arable meadow & pasture being in Hingham, 6 acres thereof abutting on the sea, lyeing betweene the lands of John Palmer & Samuel Parker, one peece of upland of 10 acres abutting (   ) Waymouth River neere to John (   ) meadow, one acre and halfe of meadow butting on the sea betweene widow Cutler & Thomas Joslins upland, and foure acres planting land butting on the sea & Thomas Hewitts land on the side thereof, and this by an absolute deed of sale with Warranty, dated and acknowledged before Tho. Dudley dept. GOv."

The records of Charlestown have the following —
"1655, — John Mirick and Elizabeth Wyborne, daughter of Thomas Wyborne of Boston, married by Captain Humphrey Atherton, at Cambridge, 3rd day, 2nd mo."

This still complicates matters, as, while we have found an Elizabeth who marries a John Mirick, the date of her marriage is 5 years later than the death of the widow Elizabeth Morick (Mirick) of Hingham, which took place June 25, 1650.

The John Mirick whom we assume to have been the brother of James, was b. in Wales in 1614. Was admitted a citizen of Charlestown, Feb. 14, 1641. He was a cooper and block-maker by occupation. As stated by the surveyor's field notes, he had a shop of his own on the water front in Charlestown. The records say of it;
"1670 - Streets surveyed.
"There is a way to low-water mark, issuing out of Fish street, and passeth on betweene John Larkins and the shop impro'd by John Mirick, down by Joshua Teel's Salt-house — the way betweene Mirick & Larkin is thirty-seven foote, and betweene the Salt-house and the wharfe is twelve foote,"

p. 2.)

He was probably possessed of considerable property. He d. Feb. 15, 1678/9. His will was proved 1678/9 and his estate was administered by his brother James, of Newbury, who appears to have also retained a dwelling in Charlestown

The best judgment of the compiler of this history assumes that the names of the children mentioned in the Charlestown records and *Wyman's "Genealogies of Charlestown", as given below, are correct. The children so named were.—

aboard the "Lyon's Whelp," sailing from Gravesend 25 apr. 1629 arrived at Salem in middle of July
P from Eng. ~~in the Arbella 1630~~; ~~settled at Salem~~ & later at Watertown, this stay, too, was brief & he moved just on to Charlestown where is ~~Charlestown, Mass.~~ 1632 he's a founder of the Church at Charlestown ★ founder of Pequot (New London), Conn. 1645, and of Stonington, Conn. 1653-54; Lt. and Capt. King Philip's war; dep. Gen. Ct. for New London 1650-51, for Stonington bet. 1665-89; chief Mil. officer at Mystic, 1665.

★ 2 yrs. later he was granted 4 a. of land at Newtown (now Cambridge) there and in 1637 owned a 10 a plot ~~Charlestown~~. In 1636 he moved once again, settling at Hingham where he rem. until 1645 at which time he joined John Winthrop, Jr's. colony of Mass. Puritans in the settlement of New London, Conn. He made his home here for a short time. In 1649 Thomas was appointed "Military Sargeant in the towne of Pequett" w/ power to call forth & train the male inhabitants. In 1652 he moved to Pawcatuck (now Stonington) becoming a co-founder of the town with 3 assoc., Wm. Chesebrough, Thomas Stanton and his fa-in-law Walter Palmer. Thomas assisted in the organization of Wicketaquoc Cove, built a house there, and acted twice as a commissioner to deal with the Indians.

On 19 June 1655 he was gr. 300 acres by the court, in Pequot, and in 1657 a gr. was made jointly to Thomas & his son Clement "from Stony Brook easterly 108 pole joining his former grant, thence north 1 mile & 60 pole, thence east 108 pole to his son Clement's grant."

In May 1666 Thomas rec'd. a colonial grant of 100 acres and in Oct. 1667, 50 acres more; such grants being made to those who had performed distinguished public service.

Thomas was buried in the graveyard nr. what was the location of his Stonington home & is said to have selected the granite boulder, lying over his grave, from his own field; the inscription nearly illegible now reads: "here lyeth the body of Lieutenant Thomas Minor, aged 83 years. Departed 1690." Nearby stands a monument commemorating his services in Stonington together with his 3 ~~associates~~.

MOUSALL

Will of the Senior John Mousall [Abstract]

The 19th of ye 4th month, 1660. That I, John Mousall, senior, of Woburn, husbandman, being in perfect memory, also "weake in body".....and my two sons John Mousall and John Brooks I make joint executors. Gives to wife Joanne Mousall all movables, "only three iron pots" I give to my son Brook's three children after her decease, and to my grandchild, Sarah Brooks, I give my "booke" of "Mr. Hildersham upon the 51 psalme";[1] and I give to my grandchild Unis [Eunice] Brooks, "my booke tituled Mr. Norton's Orthodox Evangelist";[2] and I give to my son John Mousall, my best "sute of apparrell." To my wife Joanna Mousall, I give two of my best cows and two ewe sheep, and my executors are to keep these cows and sheep for her, winter and summer, so long as she liveth, and all her firewood and four pounds a year to be paid by my executors, either in money or corn. I give to my son John Brooks, one cow and one sheep toward the furnishing of the new room joining to his house, and my wife is to have a peaceable living in it, providing she stay in it. I give to Ephraim Bucke and Hannah Lepinwell, either of them, a ewe lamb, at or before the end of their time, provided they carry it respectfully to my wife, at the judgment of the overseers of my will; and I give to my Reverend Pastor, Mr. Thomas Carter, one ewe sheep, and I give my great meadow to my two sons equally; but in case he die without children, then he can give it to his wife for her life; and after my son John Mousall's decease, and his wife leaving no heir, it shall return to my son John Brook's children. I give to my wife the third part of the fruit of the orchard for her life, and the little hemp-yard and garden the back side of the old house. To my grandchild, Joanna Brooks, my little bible. The rest of my lands I give to my two sons equally, as they have agreed, and have in possession. I also make my brothers James Thompson and Allen Converse, overseers of my will. Probated April 4, 1665.

In the name of God, Amen. I, JEREMIAH MULLER, of Claverack, in Albany County. I leave to my eldest son Cornelius my negro man named "Jo," "in right of Primogeniture and first born, and he is to make no further claims." I direct all debts paid. I leave to my wife Elizabeth the use of my old place, where I now live, at Claverack, between the lands of Hendrick Ten Broeck and William Esselstyne, with the house, barracks, barn, and orchard, and all the personal estate so long as she remains my widow. I leave to my eldest son Cornelius all that part of my estate in Claverack, now in his possession, upon a certain creek or kill, commonly called Cornelis Kill, with the buildings. "Beginning at the kill, on the north side of the same, and running southeast 10 yards to the south of a small marsh, towards a small bridge that lays in a Branch or spruyt, where the Wigwam of the Indian Samess stood; then down the Brook, to the end of the Ditch, where there stands an apple tree; then over the said kill or creek, between the old and new reckoning, till you come to the point of the kill, then going up northeast on said kill or creek, on both sides of the same, as far as my right goes, with all improvements. As granted to me by the late Colonel Henry Van Rensselaer, as by Indenture may appear." And he shall pay to my wife Elizabeth £3 12s. yearly "without fraud or delay." I leave to my son Jacob all the rest of my lands and wood lands, that lie on the said Cornelis Kill to the southwest of the tract I have left to Cornelis, and now in the possession of my son Jacob. And he is to pay to my wife £2 8s. yearly. I leave to my son Johanes the farm he now lives on, as granted to me by Colonel Henry Van Rensselaer, and he shall pay to my wife £2 8s. yearly. My old place where I now live, the use of which is left to my wife, I now give to my 4 daughters, Hendricke, widow of Bartholomew Hogeboom; Heltye, wife of John De Lamater; Maria, wife of Jacobus De Lamater, and Janettie, widow of Abraham Fonda. And they shall pay to my son Jacob £16 and to my son Johanes £16. The rest of my estate I leave to all my children. I make my 3 sons and my friend, Stephanus Van Dyke, executors.

Ø in the "De Hoop", sailing soon after 10 Jan. 1661; obtained a Quit Claim from Frederick Claessen, 29 Jan. 1676/7, to a piece of land called "Pruyn Vlachte" (Plum Flat); 6 Jan. 1684/5, appt'd. to be roadmaster in the county "from Claverack to Kinderhook, and to the shore". At about the end of the 18th century, spelling of the name began to change to MILLER for some unknown reason, just as it had changed from MULDER to MULLER 100 yrs. earlier.
